Relay For Life is held Friday, June 1 at the Pendleton County Fairgrounds. It starts at dusk and ends the next morning. The light and darkness of the day and night parallel the physical effects, emotions and mental state of a cancer patient while undergoing treatment.

The Relay begins when the sun is setting. This symbolizes the time that the person has been diagnosed of having cancer. The days are getting darker and this represents the cancer patient's state of mind as they feel that their life is coming to an end.

As the evening goes on, it gets colder and darker, just as the emotions of a cancer patient do. Between 1 and 2 a.m. represents the time Continued to next page
